

Maria Pierre is the Chief Executive Officer of The Pascall Company.

She has over 20 years experience as a counselor and administrator working in leadership positions for large non-profit companies in Florida and the Northeast. Her practice has specialized in crisis counseling in the fields of rape crisis, domestic violence, drug and alcohol treatment, and spiritual direction.

Maria began her career as a branch manager for Connecticut National Bank in Hartford, CT. She then spent the next 10 years as a counselor and administrator where she honed her therapeutic and managerial skills. Ordained as an Interfaith Minister at the New Seminary in London, England, Maria founded Esperanza Interfaith Center in Tampa, FL where she conducts individual counseling, workshops, retreats, weddings and ceremonies.

Maria has been with the Pascall Company since 2004 and leads the company's marketing initiatives and oversees finances and administration. She serves as professional development facilitator and counselor for the Your Career Essentials program, conducting career search support groups and providing professional development coaching. She is also creator of the Workplace Harmony program, a program designed to facilitate personal and professional work life synergy.

Maria is a current chairperson of Lightworkers Alliance Tampa Bay, member of Westshore Alliance, Hispanic Professional Women Association, Latino Coalition and Spiritual Directors International.

She holds a B.A. from Harvard College in Sociology.
