

A management consulting and strategy firm specializing in diversity recruiting, consulting, training and human resources.

How might my law firm or company benefit from working with Pascall?

Pascall helps law firms and companies define and strengthen their Diversity Initiatives by creating a diversity strategy that effectively communicates and achieves diversity business objectives.

A best practice among successful law firms and companies is to designate a Diversity Partner to assist and consult with management to foster a climate of creativity, innovation, and inclusion.

What types of services does Pascall offer law firms and companies?

- Recruiting of Lateral Attorneys
- Recruiting of Professionals and Management Personnel
- Leadership and Management Development
- Diversity Training for Managers
- Diversity Awareness Seminars
- Employee Retention
- Change Management
- Organizational Effectiveness
- Human Resource/Diversity Strategic Management
- Outplacement Services
- Work-Life Synergy

How might these services help my law firm or company?

- Competitive advantage in client retention, and new business development & acquisition
- Increased marketability of firm or company in diverse markets
- Improved retention of diverse attorneys, professionals and management personnel
- Positive positioning in marketplace for attracting diverse attorneys, professionals and management personnel

About The Pascall Company

Mission: The Pascall Company integrates diversity and human resources into a company's overall business strategy resulting in a more productive and profitable organization.

Team: Teddy Pierre, Founder Emeritus of the Pascall Company and a team of professional consultants assist companies and organizations by providing specific human resources and diversity services.

History: With offices in Tampa, Florida, The Pascall Company has for 6 years successfully worked with clients throughout the South as a recruiter of choice and a diversity consulting partner.

RECRUITING

CONSULTING

TRAINING